DEDICATION.

THIS early Publication is most affectionately Dedicated to all the Members of the BAPTIST Denomination of the several Communion in Europe, especially in America, and most to the Associations who have encouraged this feeble undertaking, viz. The General Committee in Virginia, The Woodstock Association in Vermont and New-Hampshire, The Stonington in Connecticut and Rhode-Island, The Vermont in Vermont and New-York, with a desire of promoting a Universal Knowledge of the Increase, Faith and Order, and in expectation that it may be continued by others more qualified, than

The unworthiest of all their Brethren,

The AUTHOR.

P R E F A C E.

IN the beginning of the year 1790 I had a great desire, not only from curiosity to know the state and standing of the Baptist Churches on this Continent, but thought it would be of real advantage to the public, related therefore my plan to several of our ministering brethren, who encouraged the same by promising their assistance; and as I had not any certain abode, property, or possession, wife, children, relations, or other things to entangle my mind, and found no other person willing or qualified for that business, (notwithstanding my abilities were small to accomplish so great an undertaking) I really thought it my duty to pursue the scheme, in order to make a beginning, which would perhaps assist the future historian, and be of some advantage to them. I therefore travelled in 1790 and 1791, for eighteen months, above 7000 miles, chiefly on foot, and visited 250 churches, and 15 associations, in order to obtain the necessary information. After a great deal of trouble, had the Register printed in April 1792, by Messieurs Dixon, Nicholson and Davis, in Richmond, Virginia; but being at a distance from the press, and depending upon the printer's correction; I found many imperfections in it, more so than what I had before by bad information; thought it therefore necessary to have it reprinted, which was done by Mr. Dobson in Philadelphia, in September 1792: but notwithstanding all, I have found many faults that have crept in, which partly were owing to my own neglect, and partly to the printer. In order to circulate them, I intended every church in Great Britain and America to have one gratis; but by enquiry, I have found that several churches have not got theirs, and some have had a double quota. Those to Britain were not distributed by my correspondent, being too difficult a task to disperse them through the whole country. However, I have lost 300 copies by miscarriages; counting every thing, I have lost eighteen months labour; and expence in printing, upwards of an hundred Dollars; yet I am willing to throw in my mite for the good of the public, and especially my own society. In order to remedy the former defects, and to get further information, I have made another tour in 1792, 1793, and 1794, for two years, at least 10,000 miles, have visited about 550 churches and 24 associations, am personally acquainted with 700 preachers of our society, so that the Register now may be depended upon. I have procured the minutes and circular letters of all the associations for four years; but finding they would swell to several volumes, I can only give a short extract from them, hoping it will be acceptable to the churches.

I am indebted to several brethren in the ministry for some of the materials, viz. Dr. John Rippon of London, Elders Backus and Edwards in America, in extracting from their several histories, hoping that my brethren will not consider this feeble attempt as an effect of pride and vain-glory; but from a real desire to promote the interest of the Redeemer's kingdom. After asking your fervent prayer for my success, both spiritual and temporal, I subscribe myself your affectionate friend and servant in the Gospel for Jesus's sake,

JOHN ASPLUND.

DESCRIPTION OF A BAPTIST,

A N D

WHAT MAKES THE DIFFERENT COMMUNIONS.

AS this Register is intended to give a proper or full Account of the Baptist denomination on this continent in particular, and in other parts of the world in general, it would be very necessary and satisfactory to the reader perhaps to give a full description of a Baptist, or about those, who are numbered in this book, and whereby they are distinguished from all other societies on the earth, which will appear from the following observations :

1st. An experience of God's grace upon their souls, viz. conviction and conversion, is required, which must be verbally delivered before the church, together with a testimony from serious persons, that a reformation in practice has taken place.

2dly. They must have faith in, and submit themselves to the holy ordinance of Baptism.

3dly. The mode must be attended to as follows. The person must be dipped or immersed under the water only one time,* in the name of the Trinity, as a token, that all the three persons, Father, Son and Holy Ghost are concerned in man's everlasting salvation.

4thly. The element must be observed, viz. water, it would be wrong to dip in liquor, milk, oil, &c.

5thly. The administrator must be a qualified person for that work, viz. 1st. Converted or regenerated. 2dly. He must have faith in the ordinance of Baptism or Immersion. 3dly. He must have been baptized by a qualified minister of our denomination, and in good standing. 4thly. He must be duly ordained by a proper presbytery by laying on of hands. 5thly. He must be a member of an orderly Baptist Church, and 7thly. In good standing viz. orthodox in judgment and moral in practice.

6thly. The person must be a member of an orderly Baptist Church, and 7thly. In good standing in the same.

N. B. I don't wish to be understood, that all the Baptists now in the communion or numbered in this book, are received upon this strict plan, yet it is a general rule with the Baptists to comply with it, except in occasional Circumstances, of necessity.

But still, as the Baptists as well as other societies differ in judgment, concerning the doctrines of the gospel, and in the practical part of religion, as well as in discipline of the church, they are therefore unhappily divided in communion—The Baptists may be properly divided into two classes, as follows : 1st. The Regular, Calvinists, or particular Baptists. 2dly. The Armenian, Freewill, Separate, or General Baptists.

* The Dunkards or German Baptists are not numbered here, as they dip the person three times in the water, which by us is counted unscriptural.

1st. Of the Regular, Calvinists, or Particular Baptists—they are called Regulars in America, in the southern states, perhaps, because, as they generally were men of more learning, and more orthodox in judgment, so they had more regular rules of discipline and public worship, and not so enthusiastic in their proceedings as the Separates. They are called Calvinists, because they generally hold to the doctrines of John Calvin of Geneva, the great reformer. They are called Particular Baptists, throughout England, because they hold to particular Election and Redemption. Some of these, have adopted the Baptists' confession of faith as published in London, 1689, containing 32 articles, in full, without any exceptions—others have excepted several articles in it—and some though they believe the articles to be sound in the confession, yet, because it is a human composition have not received it, as binding on them. And though they differ in some things, yet they have not divided the communion.*

2dly. The Armenian, Freewill, Separate, or General Baptists—they are called Armenians, because they generally adhere to the doctrines propagated by James Arminius, professor of Geneva—they are called Free-willers because, they believe, that the will of man is a turning point of their salvation—they are called Separates in the southern states of America, because they separated from the Presbyterians and were separated in their tenets from them,† they are called General Baptists throughout all England because, they hold in General Redemption or provision, general invitations, and general workings of the Spirit. These are divided into several communions on this continent.

- I. Those who hold in general atonement, and perseverance in grace.
- II. Those who hold final falling from grace.

* In the southern states of America, viz. Virginia, North and South Carolina, and Georgia, they have united with the Separates, both in membership and communion.

† The Separates first arose in New-England, where some pious ministers and members left the Presbyterian or the standing order, on the account of their formality and superfluity, viz. 1st. Because they did not allow women to exercise their gifts in public. 2dly. because they were too extravagant in their apparel. 3dly. because they did not believe their form of government to be right; but chiefly, because they would admit none to the ministry but men of classical education, and because many of their ministers apparently seem to be unconverted. They were then called separate New-lights—some of these were baptized in New-England, and moved to the southern states, and others after their removal, where they retained the name separates, and God abundantly blessed their labours, especially elders Shubal Stern's and Daniel Marshall's.

They were all upon the separate plan, till elders Peter Van Horne and Benjamin Miller from New-Jersey, as delegates from the Philadelphia association made a visit to the southern states, in order to reform the churches, they constituted several upon the regular order, and then the division took place, till they measurably got united in 1785,

III. Those who occasionally will commune with Pædo-baptists, (or unbaptized Christians.)

IV. Those who make Laying on of Hands upon baptized believers, essential to Communion. Many of these hold falling from grace.

V. Those who hold the seventh day Sabbath essential to Communion. These are rather mixed in sentiments, some Armenians and some Calvinists.*

As there has been a difficulty with me, what sorts or degrees of public gifts should be inserted in this General Register, as preachers, I have in that matter, observed this general rule ; 1st. All those who have been regularly ordained and chosen by the Church as overseers, watchmen, or under-shepherds, are called Pastors, and though many of them have the care, or attend several churches in the southern States, they are in this book considered only as pastor, where they have their membership, and they are no longer under obligation, to be their pastor, than they are supported by the Church.

All those who are called by God, according to best of evidences, to the work of the ministry, and have abilities and qualifications suitable to it, are generally ordained as itinerants, helps, or assistances, who either travel at large, or live in a neighbourhood, and preach occasionally, and in a vacant church administer the Ordinances, and even where a pastor is, in his absence, infirmity, &c.

All those members in a Church, who appear to have a gift of a public nature, viz. for the advantage of the Public, are admitted as candidates for the ministry. They are generally, first verbally admitted to exercise their gifts in the limits of the Church in the way of public prayer, exhortation, and expounding or commenting upon a certain passage or text, and after some time, if their gift seems to increase, they are admitted to preach publicly, and if found useful, they are, by a written licence, permitted to preach in the neighbouring churches, and after good and sound evidence of their character, knowledge, and usefulness called by the Church to be set apart for the ministry ; which is generally done by an able Presbytery. Only those who have permission from their church to preach in neighbouring churches, are inserted as candidates or preachers in this book, though there are many good and useful gifts of an inferior nature, yet they cannot be called Preachers, as having not proper abilities or sufficient skill or knowledge.

EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR THIS REGISTER, ARRANGED FOR NOVEMBER, 1793.

I have endeavoured to make this Register as plain and concise as possi-

* There are a number of Baptists, in various parts of this Continent, who hold in Universal Restoration, especially in Kentucky, where there are few constituted churches, and an association ; but as they are not fellowshiped by any other Baptists of any Communion, they are therefore omitted in this Register.

ble, have therefore tried to avoid marks of significations, and words of abbreviations ; and that it may be better understood, these following observations may suffice.

The States are arranged from north to south.

In the first column, are, 1st. inserted in Roman capitals, the Counties in which the churches lie, in alphabetical order for each State ;* and, 2dly, The names of the churches in small Roman, in alphabetical order for each County.

In the second column, are inserted in Italic letters, to what association each church belongs.

In the third column, are the ages of each church, or the year when they were constituted, or re-constituted.

In the fourth column, are noticed, all the preachers' names in each church, viz. all ordained ministers in small Roman characters : the itinerants, or helps, are distinguished with an *, the candidates are in Italic letters ; and if any preachers live above 25 miles from their churches, they are noticed in the foot of the page ; they are always inserted, where their membership is, though they may live at a distance from their church ; where I could not find the membership of a preacher, they are inserted at the nearest church where they live ; and in that case, within Parenthesis's (). If any preacher has left off exercising his Function for old age, infirmity, or other reasons, he is noticed in the foot of the page.

In the fifth column are inserted the number of members for 1790. In the sixth for 1791. In the seventh for 1792, and in the eighth for 1793. These accounts were received each year, at the setting of the associations, to which the several churches belong, (which may be seen in the Schedule) and as for the churches who do not belong to any association, their accounts were taken at the setting of the adjacent, or nearest association.

A distinct Register, is kept for every Communion of the Baptists, the Negro and Indian churches.†

The ministering brethren who have gone through classical education, or, for their abilities and usefulness have received a title of honour, or diploma granted to them, are noticed, viz. A. B. (Artium Bachelaurus) the first degree at college, Bachelor of Arts. A. M. (Artium Magister) the second degree, Master of Arts, (upon application) is granted to all A. B. the third year who continue to be studious. D. D. (Doctor Divinitatis) Doctor or Teacher in Divinity, the third or highest degree of honour.

I had at the first view, in contemplation, to publish a short history of my life, progress in religion, and travels ; but being fully satisfied, that this publication upon a larger scale would be more profitable, have therefore omitted it at present, hoping within six months to favour my friends with it.

* Where a church lies in two townships, counties, states, or more, the church is inserted where the meeting-house is, or the Lord's Supper administered.

† The negro and Indian preachers are not inserted, only those who are ordained,

N. B. All the Churches belonging to the S. Kentucky Association are Separates or Armenian Baptists, and are therefore divided there in the Communion with the Regulars or Calvinists, yet they are in full communion with the Virginia United Baptists, who annually meet by their delegates in a general committee.

In November 1793, four churches, viz. Jesseman Creek, 2d of Tate's Creek, Hickman Creek, and Forks of Dick's River, separated from the S. Kentucky Association, and made up a new one, in communion with the Regulars.

No accounts have been received for 1793, concerning the additions of members in the Salem and S. Kentucky Associations; but it is supposed to be nearly the same, if not more.

SEVERAL charitable institutions have been established among the Baptists, for the purpose of educating young men of piety and promising abilities for the ministry.

Particularly, the Philadelphian Association by an annual collection from their Churches have assisted several young men in obtaining an education.

Also, the Charleston Association have a Fund for the same purpose; which is annually increasing by collections from the Churches. Several young Gentlemen now members of Rhode-Island College have been, and still are assisted by this Fund.

The Warren Association have also lately established a Fund for the same purpose. They have obtained an act of incorporation from the Legislature of Massachusetts, and are styled "The Baptist Education Society."

They have a small Capital already collected, and are daily increasing it; but as no appropriations are to be made but of the interest, nothing has as yet been realized.

Commencement; the first Wednesday in September.

Vacations:—From the 1st Wednesday in September to the 20th of October. From the 25th of December, 6 weeks; and from May 6th, 6 weeks.

The College annually increases in its number of students. At present there are about 80. There is a good library for the use of the scholars, and an excellent Philosophical Apparatus. The annual expences of education amount to about 25 or 30 pounds lawful money of New-England. Dollars at 6/. This however, will depend on the general price of provisions.

There are several lesser schools, kept by Elders William Williams of Wrentham, Charles Thompson of Swanze, Massachusetts, Samuel Jones of Pennypeck, Pennsylvania, &c. but one Academy especially, at Bordentown, New-Jersey, by Elder Burgiss Allison.

An Abstract of the Principles held by the Baptists in general.

1. WE believe in one only true and living God; and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy-Ghost.
2. We believe that the scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal particular election.
4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature, by his own free will ability.
6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God, only by the imputed righteousness of Christ.
7. We believe that God's elect shall be called, converted, regenerated, and sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

8. We believe that the saints shall persevere in grace, and never fall finally away.

9. We believe that baptism and the Lord's supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects of these ordinances—And we believe that the true mode of baptism is by immersion.

10. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment.

11. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting, and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

12. We believe that no ministers have a right to the administration of the ordinances, only such as are regularly called, and come under imposition of hands by the presbytery, &c. &c.

The Plan or Constitution of the regular Baptist Associations.

PREAMBLE.—From a long series of experience, we, the churches of Jesus Christ, being regularly baptized upon the profession of our faith in Christ, are convinced of the necessity of a combination of churches, in order to perpetuate an union and communion amongst us, and preserve and maintain a correspondence with each other in our union:—We therefore propose to maintain and keep the orders and rules of an association, according to the following plan or form of government.

ARTICLE I. The association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, and duly sent to represent them in the association; who shall be members whom they judge best qualified for that purpose, and producing letters from their respective churches, certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to a seat.

ART. II. In the letters from the different churches, shall be expressed, their members in full fellowship, those baptized, received by letter, dismissed, excommunicated, and dead since the last association.

ART. III. The members thus chosen and covenanted, shall have no power to lord it over God's heritage; nor shall they have any classical power over the churches; nor shall they infringe any of the internal rights of any church in the union.

ART. IV. The association, when convened, shall be governed and ruled by a regular and proper decorum.

ART. V. The association shall have a moderator and clerk, and shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

ART. VI. New churches may be admitted into this union, who shall petition by letter and delegates, and upon examination (if found orthodox and orderly) shall be received by the association, and manifested by the moderator, giving the delegate the right hand of fellowship.

ART. VII. Every church in the union shall be entitled to representation in the association.

ART. VIII. Every query presented by any member in the association, shall be once read: and before it be debated the moderator shall put it to vote, and if there be a majority for its being debated, it shall be taken into consideration, and be deliberated; but if there be a majority against it, it shall be withdrawn.

ART. IX. Every motion made and seconded, shall come under the consideration of the association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it.

ART. X. The association shall endeavour to furnish the churches with the minutes of the associations. The best method for effecting that purpose shall be at the discretion of the future associations.

ART. XI. We think it absolutely necessary that we should have an association fund, for defraying the expenses of the same; for the raising and supporting of which, we think it is the duty of each church in the union, to contribute voluntarily, such sums as they shall think proper, and send by the hands of their delegates to the association; and those monies thus contributed by the churches, and received by the association, shall be deposited in the hands of a treasurer by the association, who shall be accountable to the association for all monies by him received and paid out according to the direction of the association.

ART. XII. There shall be an association book kept, wherein the proceedings of every association shall be regularly recorded, by a secretary appointed by the association, who shall receive a compensation yearly, for his trouble.

ART. XIII. The minutes of the association shall be read (and corrected if need be) and signed by the moderator and clerk before the association rises.

ART. XIV. Amendments to this plan or form of government may be made at any time by a majority of the union, when they may deem it necessary.

ART. XV. The association shall have power,

1. To provide for the general union of the churches.
2. To preserve inviolably a chain of communion amongst the churches.
3. To give the churches all necessary advice in matters of difficulty.
4. To inquire into the cause why the churches fail to represent themselves at any time in the association.
5. To appropriate those monies by the churches contributed, for an association fund, to any purpose they may think proper.

6. To appoint any member or members, by and with his or their consent, to transact any business which they may see necessary.

7. The association shall have power to withdraw from any church in this union, which shall violate the rules of this association, or deviate from the orthodox principles of religion.

8. To admit any of the distant brethren in the ministry as assistants, who may be present at the time of their sitting, whom they shall judge necessary.

9. The association shall have power to adjourn themselves to any future time or place they may think most convenient to the churches in the union.

Rules of Decorum.

1. The association shall be opened and closed by prayer.

2. A moderator and clerk shall be chosen by the suffrage of the members present.

3. Only one person shall speak at a time, who shall rise from his seat and address the moderator when he is about to make his speech.

4. The person thus speaking shall not be interrupted in his speech by any except the moderator, till he is done speaking.

5. He shall strictly adhere to the subject, and in no wise reflect on the person who spoke before; so as to make remarks on his slips, failings, or imperfections; but shall fairly state the case and matter as nearly as he can, so as to convey his light or ideas.

6. No person shall abruptly break off, or absent himself from the association, without liberty obtained from it.

7. No person shall rise and speak more than three times to one subject, without liberty obtained from the association.

8. No member of the association shall have liberty of laughing during the sitting of the same, nor whispering in the time of a public speech.

9. No member of the association shall address another in any other terms or appellations but the title of brother.

10. The moderator shall not interrupt any member in, or prohibit him from speaking, till he give his light on the subject, except he break the rules of this decorum.

11. The names of the several members of the association shall be enrolled by the clerk, and called over as often as the association requires.

12. The moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speech as another member, provided the chair be filled, and he shall have no vote, unless the association be equally divided.

13. That any member who shall willingly and knowingly break any of these rules, shall be reproved by the association, as they shall think proper.

N. B. A considerable Fund is raised in England for the promulgation of the Gospel among the Heathens, by the Particular Baptists; who, in the Spring of 1793, sent two respectable Ministers, viz. Elders William Carey and John Thomas † to Bengal in the East-Indies, who intend to preach the Gospel among them, and to translate the Bible into that language.

† It is very likely in Germany there are both Particular and General Baptists. A number of Professors of Colleges are included, also those who for old age have resigned, yet receive their stipend; likewise Proponent or Candidates.

‡ There are twenty-one preachers in one Church, viz. Dantzick, which is divided into four quarters.

¶ He had already visited that part and resided there five years, his labours were blessed, and several brought to the knowledge of the truth, by whose request he renewed his voyage.

☞ These Accounts are extracted from Dr. John Rippon's Register of London for 1796; but it is supposed, there are more Churches and Ministers in Europe, not noticed in that Register.

A D D E N D A.

THERE has been, and is yet a difficulty in knowing which is the 2d Church of New-York. I hope no offence will be taken for my having inserted Elder Montanye's for the 2d, and Elder La Hatt's the 3d.

The Philadelphia Association did not set in 1793, on the account of sickness in the city ; but it is supposed, no material alterations have taken place since 1792, either in Churches, Ministers, or Members.

Samptown Church, constituted in 1792, was omitted in its proper place.

Isaac Monson who was licensed in 1792 to preach at Indian-Creek, Kentucky, was also omitted. Also, John Jones of Newport 2d Church, Rhode-Island, who was licensed in 1793, living now in Providence. Likewise, William Legget, also licensed in 1793, in Beauty Spot Church, Marlborough, S. Carolina.

Elder Isaac Morris was excommunicated for lesser disorder, but afterwards received into Elder Jacob Davis's Church, White-Day Creek, Monongalia, Virginia.
